Being Thankful

Today our society has been captivated with the need for more and more physical things. We are a consumer orientated world. Our very economy is based largely upon our desire for more of everything. Few of us today are content with what we have. It seems many have lost sight of what it means to be truly thankful.

Unthankfulness and greed have become the hallmark of the age in which we live. The Apostle Paul put it this way, “But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: for men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power...” (II Tim. 3:1-5 NKJV).

Are you thankful for all the blessings God has given you? Don't be caught up in the trap of needing the latest and greatest of everything. Paul instructed Timothy on this point, “Now godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows” (I Tim. 6:6-10 NKJV).

Here in the United States of America, we traditionally celebrate a day in November to commemorate being thankful for the blessings God has provided this Nation. We Christians must always remember to be especially thankful for all the wonderful blessings God has given us both spiritually and physically.

“Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, ‘I will never leave you nor forsake you’” (Heb. 13:5).

Take plenty of time to count your many blessings and trust in God to supply all your needs!
